

Obituary

Born: Sunday, August 21, 1932

Died: Saturday, July 31, 2021

Bowling Green, KY

Harold D. Miller, 88, formerly of Port Allegany, passed away on July 31, 2021 in Bowling Green, KY following a long illness.

Born on August 21, 1932 in Troupsburg, NY he was a son of Joseph E. and Clrinda May Hammond Miller. On September 1, 1961 in the Methodist Church in Port Allegany, PA he married Betty Marie Trimm, who survives. He attended Troupsburg area schools and had resided in Gleason Hollow for several years before moving to Morgantown, KY in 2001. He was a veteran of the Korean War having served in the Army in Korea as a corporal in the Infantry. He was later employed at the Pittsburgh Corning Glass Plant in Port Allegany for seventeen years in the glass block plant, later he was employed at Clark Brothers in Olean as a blast operator retiring in 1996 from the then Ingersoll Rand Company.

Harold had been a member, along with his wife, of the Smethport Bowling League and is currently a member of the American Legion. He loved spending time with his wife and children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, he was an avid hunter (having loaded his own shells) and he enjoyed fishing, camping, wood working, birdwatching and puzzle books.
